

Charlotte County, Lee County and Gasparilla Island Bridge Authority

Boca Grande

CHARLOTTE COUNTY
FLORIDA

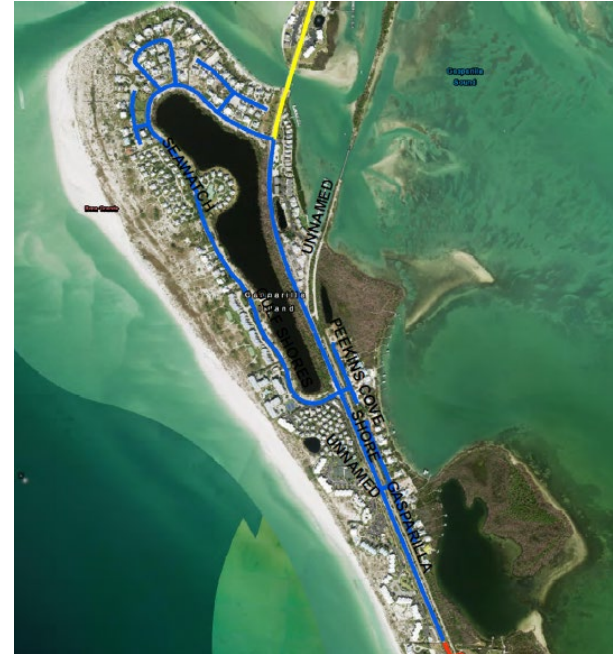

Boca Grande

Boca Grande

- Barrier Island that is partially in both Charlotte and Lee Counties
- 3 primary maintenance entities
 - Charlotte County
 - Gasparilla Island Bridge Authority (GIBA)
 - Lee County

Charlotte County

- Boca Grande
Municipal Services
Benefit Unit (MSBU)

Gasparilla Island Bridge Authority (GIBA)

- Controls access to Boca Grande (aka Gasparilla Island) via toll bridge and owns the causeway

Lee County

- The included map details the area of Boca Grande that falls within the geographic boundary of Lee County.
 - Staff has not confirmed actual maintenance responsibilities of these roadways.

Existing Coordination Efforts

- Solid Waste – Lee County
- Barricades for hurricane response/recovery – GIBA
- Hurricane debris removal – GIBA & Lee County
 - *GIBA may prefer a formalized agreement for debris

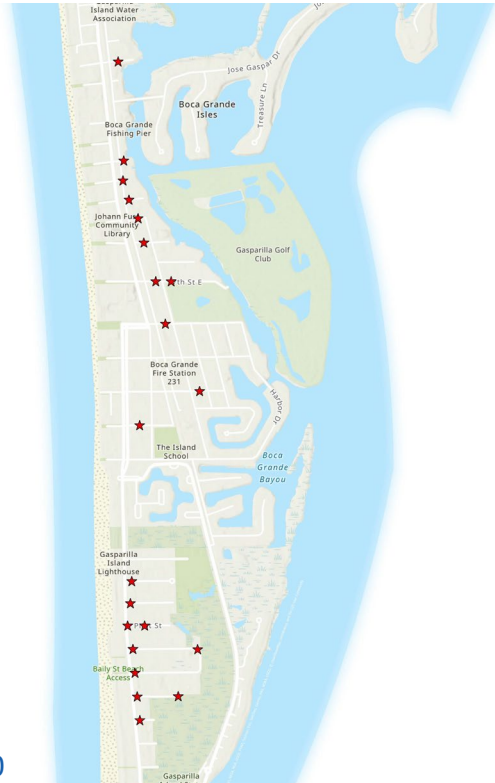

Formal Agreements

- AGR 90-042, Amended and Restated most recently in June 2020 for Solid Waste Collection and Disposal for Lee County's portion of Boca Grande
 - Supplemental Services Amendment for Hurricane Ian debris removal – October 2022 – December 2022.

Formal Agreements

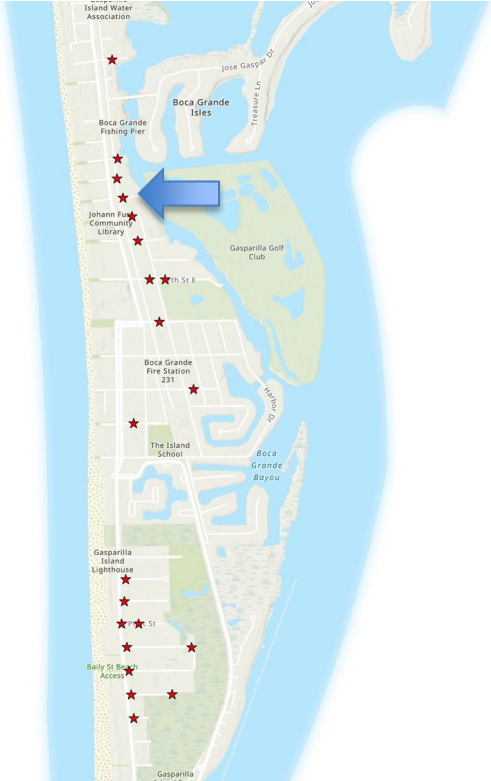

- AGR 980201A0 – Agreement to more effectively provide for emergency management and other governmental services to the residents and visitors to the area governed by GIBA

Boca Grande Hurricane Impacts

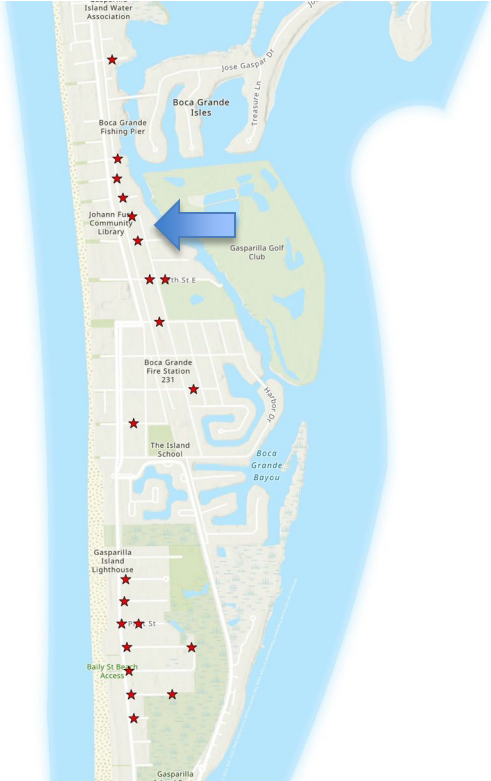

Wash out conditions exposed and damaged underground utilities in addition to undermining pavement and sidewalks throughout the community.

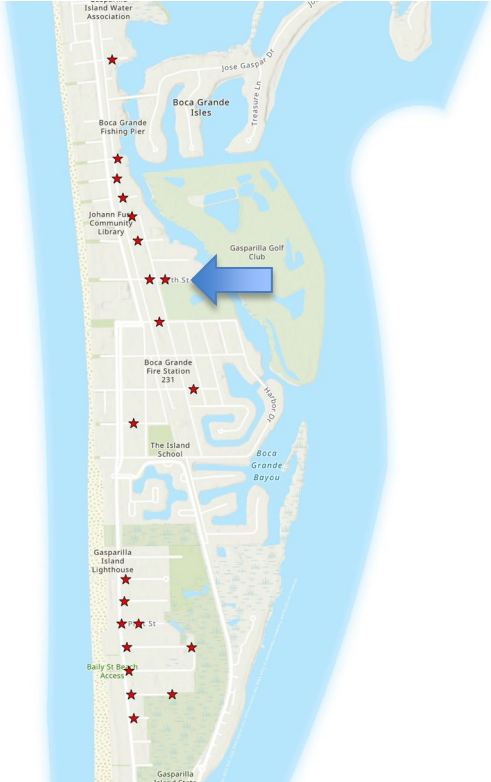

Boca Grande Hurricane Impacts

Boca Grande Hurricane Impacts

Boca Grande Hurricane Impacts

Boca Grande Hurricane Impacts

